"Individual soldiers who returned and are to return unattached also have problems outside of the scope of Federal, Provincial and Municipal rehabilitation schemes, excellent as those schemes are, and The Salvation Army is helping in the solution of their problems."

A WAY TO PAY

Much has been said since VE Day about the "unimendable debt" we owe to those who have given their lives in the struggle—"a debt we can never pay."

Why can't we measure? Why can't we pay? At least in part? They gave full measure of devotion to their country. In their eyes and in our eyes, they gave us the measure of devotion.

We may not be called upon to make a full down payment as they did. We may not have to pay with our lives. But we can pay through our living. Pay as the individual pays. Pay in part through all the ways a man can devote himself to his country.

Through devotion to his family. Through devotion to his friends. Through active devotion to the people of his country. Through honest, useful, unselfishness—far pay.

There is a suggested schedule of part payments, each in themselves, but which all add up.

Payment No. 1—pay more attention to the family at the breakfast table.

Payment No. 2—pay the apology we owe the other fellow for calling him down on something that was not his.

Payment No. 3—pay more visits to the church—not to criticize the minister or tell a good example to the children—but to see where we ourselves need to get a good example to the children.

Payment No. 4—pay the debt we owe to the nation we were raised in—don't be honest with our wife for husband and all.

Payment No. 5—pay back the money we gyped on the income tax.

Payment No. 6—pay a new kind of attention to the other man's complaints—probably we caused them.

Payment No. 7—pay a new kind of attention to the other man's complaints—probably we caused them.

Mealless Day Starts 4 a.m.

Mealless days in public eating places start 4 a.m. Tuesdays and Fridays, and continue for the 24-hour period following, instead of the 20-hour period formerly in effect. At midnight, the Wartime Prices and Trade Board announced.

This change, requested by the restaurant trade to conform with normal hours of operation, will enable customers to plan menus for the full 24 hours from 4 a.m. through the late midnight meal period. In all restaurants, it will alleviate the problem of making menu alterations at the stroke of midnight.

Mealless Tuesdays and Fridays saw about 1,000,000 pounds of meat weekly, and contribute materially to the meat ration program set in steps under regulations on meat consumption, restrictions on meat except those of which meat is an ingredient, but except cannot "pork and beans" and chicken-prepared pork and beans provided that no pork, except collar fat, is included in the serving.
